Reservations and use of the courts

Online reservation system

The Tennis Club of Founex has opted for an online booking system, PLUGIN, to facilitate the reservation of courts and the related administrative tasks. Here are the rules:

1. Anyone wishing to become a member of the TCF is obliged to register on the site and to fulfill the financial obligations before using the courts. The rates are to be found ici. After validation of the payment, the member will receive his login ID by email within 5 working days. Upon receipt, he will be able to access his bookings, status, courses etc. at any time.
2. Upon request, a membership card can be provided at the price of CHF 10.-, in order to validate the reservation on site. If the member wishes, he can activate his reservation through his mobile phone (by activating the geolocation of the device). The reservation system can also be used via the smartphone application Plugin.ch, available on Android or Apple.
3. The reservation of a court can be done in 3 different ways: 1) via the smartphone app Plugin.ch, 2) directly at the terminal (on site) or 3) via the reservations site Plugin.
4. Courts 2-3-4-5 can be booked remotely or via the online booking system at the address : <https://plugin.tcfounex.ch/reserver.php> , or via the Plugin.ch app for smartphone or at the terminal situated at the club. Courts 1 and 6 can only be reserved by being on site, via the terminal.
5. The reservation of a court must contain the name of the other player(s) of the game. Any abuse by impersonating another member will be punished. The reservation of a court with 3 players is considered as a singles.
6. All reservations of a court must be validated by all the players registered in the reservation (via the terminal's reader or by geolocation on a smartphone) 30 minutes before and up to 10 minutes after the start of the scheduled game. After this time, the court will be considered vacant and the available place may be occupied by other players.

7. The Committee is automatically notified of any game cancelled (following the non-presentation of a sufficient number of players, non-validation at the terminal or via geolocation). Penalties will be incurred from the fifth reservation that was not cancelled in advance, 30 minutes before the start of the game.
8. At any time, a member can not have more than one active reservation in his account. An exception to this rule is made for so-called last minute bookings (see point 9).

However, he is given the opportunity to reserve a court (1 hour) if this reservation is made 30 minutes before the desired game time (it does not matter if he has an upcoming reservation within 8 days). These are last minute bookings.
